

Q1. Write python code from scratch to convert color image (Rose.jpg) to grayscale image using a def function and list of comprehension method and plot processing time comparison with other methods

Q2. Write python code from scratch to convert Grayscale image to Binary images using a def function and list of comprehension method and plot processing time comparison with other methods

Q3. Write python code from scratch to add and subtract two images using def function and list of comprehension method and plot processing time comparison with other methods.